10 The Rev. Comr. suggests that this training may be given when they undergo equitation training. So far as Prob. Asst. Comrs. are concerned all the 4 have already qualified themselves in equitation and they have just been posted to different distrcts (by R.C. in anticipation of Govt Sanction) as noted in the margin, to complete District and Sub Division office training.

States that the course of training will occupy five weeks ($\frac{3}{4}$ an hour every day) and that it could be given only at Bangalore.

15 All the officers selected for training will have to be at Bangalore for about 5 weeks and this training will occupy $\frac{3}{4}$ an hour every day in the morning or evening. So this training has to be combined with some other training which the Rev. Probationers & Prob. Asst. Comrs can simultaneously undergo at Bangalore.

20) The Revenue Commissioner has suggested the desirability of giving a course of training in musketry to Probationary Assistant Commissioners and Revenue Probationers, as occasions may arise in the course of their duties as Magistrates, Police Officers and the like when they may have to use fire-arms. The Chief Commandant, who was consulted in the matter, states that this could be conveniently arranged for at Bangalore and that the course would extend to about five weeks, three-quarters of an hour either in the morning or evening every day being allotted for the purpose.

21) It is unnecessary to post all the Revenue Probationers and Probationary Assistant Commissioners specially to Bangalore for this purpose and arrangements can be made to give the training (in batches) to the Probationers and senior officers stationed at Bangalore, without prejudice to their other duties.

22) The above proposals which are agreed to by the Members of Council may be graciously approved.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that Assistant Commissioners and Amildars are responsible for the maintenance of the peace in the Districts in their capacity as Magistrates and moreover in the discharge of their ordinary duties also occasions will arise when they may have to use fire-arms. It is therefore desirable that Probationary Assistant Commissioners and Revenue Probationers should be given a course of training in musketry. This training may be arranged for when they undergo equitation training. In these circumstances, I request that orders of Government may be obtained to give these Probationers training in musketry.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Revenue Commissioner.
